BIOGRAPHY

Tascha Jerawan is an Anglo-Thai singer/songwriter with a style best described as Acoustic Soul with rich velvety tones & hooky lyrics.

Influenced by artists from Etta James to Sade, Tascha Jerawan has cultivated a style through years working the UK's Festival circuit and now frequents the local Birmingham music scene.

Since picking up the Guitar aged twelve Tascha Jerawan has been honing her craft with notable accomplishments along the way, from being featured on BBC Introducing to playing some of UKs most prestigious venues including 02Academy Birmingham & Indig02 London.

Be it intimate or grand, acoustic or plugged Tascha's warm vocals and crisply plucked guitar resonate beyond her final track leaving a lasting impression.

Whether it be a bar, wedding or festival, Tascha never fails to leave her audience wanting to hear more and is available for bookings now.

Tascha is currently in the process of recording her debut EP which she hopes to have ready in the coming season.
